Your strategic partner for culture and community building.

“Working with the SK team gives us access to a whole bunch of big brains and even deeper experience. They've been great to work with and we plan to be raising millions with them for many years.”

Our Vision & Mission

Scandiuzzi Krebs partners with nonprofit organizations working at the intersection of culture and community.

Our team brings decades of experience to the table in fundraising, executive management, program development, and more. We are passionate about using our skills to help you thrive.

Our Invitation

Asking for help is tough, but that's what community is for. Whether your organization's in good times or crisis mode—whether you just need a little guidance or you need some heavy lifting, our team is ready to meet you with grace, understanding, and action.

"We are grateful for the support of Scandiuzzi Krebs for their insight, coaching, and excellent grant writing. Their support is helping us to become a healthier, more sustainable organization. Thank you!"
